

Schengen short stay

Depends on whether your passport requires a Schengen visa

Step-by-step

- 1 Check whether your passport needs a Schengen short-stay visa.
- 2 Check the 90 days in any 180-day rule.
- 3 Prepare travel insurance, accommodation, return/onward travel, and funds if asked.
- 4 Do not treat a short stay as permission to live or work in Spain.

Common documents

- 1 Passport
- 2 Schengen visa if required
- 3 Travel insurance if required
- 4 Accommodation and return/onward travel proof

Official links

Check visa or ETIAS requirement

<https://travel-europe.europa.eu/en/etias/about-etias/who-should-apply>

Official EU 90/180 calculator

<https://ec.europa.eu/assets/home/visa-calculator-2/calculator.htm?lang=en>

Important

Requirements can vary by personal situation and may change. Always verify with official sources. This is only a starting point; your nationality, consulate, family situation, and documents can change the exact process.

HolaPapers is a planning guide only. Always verify the current official procedure before filing.