

TIE card after VISA approval

After choosing TIE, first confirm that a visa, authorization, or favorable decision already exists. The TIE does not grant residence by itself; it documents permission that was already approved.

Step-by-step

- 1 Check that you have the visa, favorable resolution, or authorization that lets you request the card.
- 2 Complete EX-17 and pay the matching 790-012 card fee.
- 3 Book the fingerprint/card appointment and bring passport, photo, approval, paid fee, and padrón if your address must be shown.
